Washington, Merch v9, 1556

Mr. Shoulds declares that in our articles during the campaign, last fall, "ho [we] complained that the nomination of Bashford was unwise, because it could not, and would not, excite the endinasiasm of himself [ourself] and others of the old wheel horses of the Liberty Guard."-We deny this charge plumply. Mr. SHOLES can look over our files, and if he can find anything to justify or give color to such a charge, we will agree to acknowledge the truth of all the false charges made against us by all who have assailed read Mr. Sholes' statement. We are still inclined to think that he must have confounded what we said after election, with what we said during the campaign For, though Mr. Sholes admits that he was "indignant," and "felt very much like blaspheming," we can hardly believe that he would coolly publish so gross a falselood, intentionally. But we will not be too confident, after reading nearly a whole column, to nonpareil, of personalities from the same source. We can use our columns to better purpose than engaging in a personal controversy ered in the Wisconsin River, a few days since, with one who is so nearly insune as to want to blaspheme!

BY MRS, P. M. A. TYLER.

How quiet the still hour of twilight steals on i The sun's golden ray often lingers so long O'er the "eastern mount;" as if parting were sweet-Ere the rosy tint has all faded complete; And the sombre twilight throws shadows around ; Then durkness prevails, we hear not a sound; But the "still small voice" of the Father we hear, Saying, this is the hour for the voiceless prayer. Its gentle influence breathes nothing but love,-On the troubled spirit it falls from above ! All warring elements within become kind. And unwanted thoughts press on the sinner's mind And a hasty glance throws the back on the past-Think of wasted moments, that have flown so fast, Ne'er to be recalled—to eternity flown : And, in eternity, their issue'll be known! Oh, the still evening hour! so lonely and fair. Is meet for the heart's meditation and prayer! What sweet sensations, on that Sabbath day, Are felt by the Christian t his cares passaway, As he ho'ds communion, so precious and sweet, With our blest Savior, who delights all to meet.

Willard H. Brown formerly a resident of Worcester Massachusetts and who had a ticket from Dauleith to Hastings, Minnesola, rose from his chair at the table and inflicted upon bimself several wounds with a bowie-knife bes fore it could be wrested from him, which wounds have terminated fatally. Mr. Halliday, Clerk of the boat, sprang and selzed his right arm, when he changed the knife into his left hand, and gave Mr. H. a severe cut between the index and foerfingers. Another person also received a bad slash across the back of the hand in endeavoring to wrest the weapon from him. The passengers, at this juncture, fled from him, he slashing right and left with his knife, and wounding several though not serious At this period he was knocked down and the knife taken from him. There were a cou-ple of physicians ou board and medical aid was immediately rendered. He died soon after G. S. Lord Stayles, A. He is doubtless sincere in his belief and opinion, but the tactics of the order are nearly all exerted the other way. It is by means of secretly packed primal neetings, that tools are chosen by it, which the real Republicans are too supathetic or too unsuspecting of fraud to attend, that has hitherto done their work. The object, as confessed, being the salue, we cannot see why such bitterness of feeling towards those instrumental in calling the Mass Convention, need be instabled in.

HAVE JUST OF ENED at their new and splendid store, the largest speech of House dy. Made Closhing in the State.

They incite Country Dealers to call and inspect their stock, fored lower than by any other House in Milwaukee. E. M. SHOYER & CO., Milwaukee. May 29, 1855. may 29wil

The means we employ ere moral and political. They are prayer to that and argument with man, and votes. that agree with, and give effect to prayer and argument. Another Presidential - lection is approaching. Can we rely on any of the great parties of our country to doour work in that election? ON NONE OF THEM. NONE OF THEM GO FOR THE AR ALITION OF SLAVERY. Only one of them is so much as anti-slavery; and even that one is anti-slavery at but a single point. The Republican pacty opposes the introduction of slavery into the Terris tories, but endorses its constitutionality in all the slave Sixbes. It has alone the whole slave trade, not only of Commerce. It lots alone slavery in the District of Columbia. It even lets alone the Fugitive Slave Bill, and well it may, for it fully admits that all the States, and does not deny that all the Territories, also, me the constitutional hunting-ground for slaves. The Republican party would have Eansa- a tree State. Nevertheless, it would allow the slaveholder a safe pursuit over all its prairies and through all its towns after his bleeding and broken

We need not have said all this to prove that we have no right to rely on the Republican party to do our work a the coming election. Enough to this end is the fact that the slavery which we are trying to abolish this party. spreads its wing over, and denies our right to abolish .most hat to this end is it that whilst we hold slavery to be a pre-eminent piracy and a naked outlaw, and that the Contitution not only does not, but could not legalize it, this party, on the contrary, regards our endeavor to liberate the millions of slaves as a wor upon the constitution and & violation of law

Let it not be supposed that we underva ue the characthe of the nombers of the Republican party. Nota few of them are our personal friends—esteemed and beloved Ly us. A considerable portion of them, we trust, are Abolitionists at heart, and subscribe to our principles.-But the more excellent the character of the members of this party, the more injurious the false policy which they have suffered to be stamped upon the party. That such non should make such concessions to slavery, is lement-able indeed. Alas, for Freedom, when even her own professed friends can consent to yield so much to slavery in exchange for so little for freedom!

Is it said that policy dictates the adoption of a pheform on which all can stand who are opposed to the extension of slavery, be the degree or character of their opposition what it may? And is it argued and expected that the Repul liean party, though starting on the low ground of this poticy, will rise into an Abolitic aparty? We answer that such a policy will, from its own inevitable influence keep down and deag down the party that adopts it ence, should the Republican party get the roins of gov eroment, it will endeavor to satisfy the nation by restoring the Missouri Compromise, and acquiescing, at every other point, in the present possessions and practices of clevery. It would feel itself bound, by the implications of its platform, not to disturb those possessions and practices. Thousands in the Republican party mean that it shall work the overthrow of slavery, and doubtless many slaveholder fears this result. Nevertheless, the success of the Republican party may prove the confirmation rather than the subversion of slavery, the most authoritative and effective endorsement of slavery, because endorsed by anti-slavery men.

It is manifest, then that we, who refuse all concession to slavery, and all terms with whatever piracy, must lay our account with doing our own work in this election.-We must noningle our candidates and vote for them and do what we can to persuade others to vote for them, Why should we despuir of electing them? Mighty will be the appeal of our principles to all who love justice and liberty for all. In their bosoms the motto of the Republican party, "Slavery sectional-liberty national," can awaken no cathusiasm, and call up no response.-The words that tell our truthful, glorious, heavenly prin-Ciper, " SLAVERY FOR NONE - LIBERTY FOR ALL "-these are the words that have power to enlock their hearts and endly their sympathies, and fire their zeal. Thousands may come to us who would never consent to go to them. Thousands may desert their standard to gather around ours. Why, indeed, should not the whole Republican party do this? The comparatively little good for which it goes, we go for also. And should they refrain from coming to us, because, in addition to this, we go for other and immeasurably greater good ? Think us not exfrave gand when we say that it is far from improbable that the Republican party will come to our standard. Anoth er great outrage at the hands of the Slave Power-such as the slaughter of a hundred men in Kansas—and there will quickly be but two political parties in the nationone party to kill slavery, and another to save it. A party to abolish slavery and a party to defend it will be the only political parties for which we shall then have room or or which we shall then have the least demand.-This was virtually admitted by Abitah Mann when, amid the loud applause of the Pittsburg Convention, he said b' the Government proceed to the shedding of a single drop of blood, for the purpose of baring the influences have of the Border Ruffen Legislature enforced, I give it to you as my deliberate conviction, and on my respon-very in this land." In each an event, what room would there be for the Republican party, with its distinct admission that " the slavel olding interest, in the States where it exists, is entitled, under the Constitution, like all other local interesis, to immunity from the interferences of the General Government "? In such an event, what room would there be for the Republican party, a party "disclaiming any intentions to interfere with slavery in the States where it exists "11. In such an event, what room would there les for the Republican party, whose Convention referred to was presided over by a slaveholder, representing a slavelishling constituency, and bringing with him, as he himself stated, a "Southern patform," designed, as he himself stated, to restore the Missouri Compromise as "the security of the slave institution"; ‡ a party that, like the Janus-laced Colonization Society, bas its pro-slavery appeal for the South, and its anti-slavery appeal for the North-aparty in which slaveholders and anti-slavery men are to unite for the common object of a mutual compromise that shall be " the finale of all exist ing commotions," and that shall nevertheless leave the slave in his chains ! § sibility us a citizen, that it will be the end of human sla-

We must not, however, concern ourselves inordinately with the quertion, whether there will be few or many to come to us. We should find sufficient encouragement to go forward in the assurance that God is with us. In claiming, as we do, the immediate and unconditional liberation of every slave, and in denying, as we do, the possibility of law for slavery, we cannot doubt that we have the Divine approbation and the Divin

Meet with us, thin brethren, at Syracuse, an Wednesday the 28th day of next Man, for the purpose of nominating men, for President and Vice-President of the United States, who have the ability, the integrity, and the courage to assert their principles, and who will wield their official powers for the deliverance of every American elayeholder, and for the salvation of the whole country. We confess too, that we should expect to see still great er numbers of you but for our apprehenation that most of you are still in the habit of looking to others than Ab litionists, and waiting for other than Abolitionists, to do your work. In 1848 you must wait to see what the Buffalo platferm party would do. It did nothing but die .-In 1852 you must wait too see what the Pittsburg platform party would do. That too, did nothing but die .-And now, will you wait to see what the second Pittsburg platform party will do? That is just as sure to die as were the others. At its very birth it refuses to inscribe on its banner the motto of its predecessors, "No more Share Stores," and rallies, in company with slaveholders en the one issue of restoring the infam our Missouri Com promise, in which Freedom was betrayed, the Slave Power enthroned, and its career of successful aggression

Every anti-stavery party that does not rise to the lev of of an Abolition party is without root and must wither away. To expect success for this new Pitraburg partyfor this policy of stopping the progress of slavery et one point, whilet indersing and guaranteein the great me

J.M. HULSHIZER, DOYLESTOWN, P.A., June 20, 1873, says:

"My wife has been afflicted with a nervous debility since September, 1831, since which time I have been analyse to find any physician or medicine that would benefit her in the reast, but if one lay I called at the store of Dr. Harvey, of this town, for some tineture of iron, and described to him the afflictions of my wife; he then handsed me a lot of papers to read, among which I found one describing your German Etters. I immediately procured a few boxtles from him, and am pleased to state that the use of the Bitters has done her more good than all the medicine she has hererofore taken. I wish you to send me a half duzen bothes."

CARTER'S SPANISH MIXTURE stands pre-emment above all others. It is implied to deficine action on the blood; its strengthening and vivifying qualities; its tonic action on the Liver: its tendency to drive all humars to the surface, thereby cleaning the system according to Nature's own prescription: it is harmless, and at the same time has extraordinary good effects, and the number of cures testified to by many of the most respectable litzens of Richmond, Vs., and elsewhere, must be conclusive evidence that there is no humburg shout it.

The trial of a single bottle will satisfy the most skeptical of its benefits.
